It may be a policy that is paid for, one on which you are still paying premiums, or a new policy. For policies that are paid for, you can take a tax-deduction for the replacement cost of the policy.

Retirement Plan

A donation of all or part of an IRA or other retirement account can prevent these funds from a double tax burden for your heirs. Because most retirement plans are not taxed as income throughout your life, they may be subject to both income and estate taxes at the time of your death. Whether you leave a retirement plan to a trust or bequeath it directly to Big Brothers Big Sisters, you can make your estate less vulnerable from taxation.
